

THE HILL FAMILY

MISSIONARIES TO JAPAN

Dear Friends,

September 2011

This marks our second month of full time deputation! We have been blessed by so many wonderful Christians and churches this month! Every day we have been reminded of God's goodness to His people, and we are humbled to be used of Him.

September 13th marked my and Rebelle's 3rd wedding anniversary! I still don't know why she ever agreed to marry me! She is the most wonderful friend and companion! She daily reminds me of the love of God. How His love is unailing! Thank you Lord for my wife!

September seemed to be missions conference month. We had the opportunity to be in the conferences of Vision Baptist and Grace Baptist. Both these churches have impacted our lives, as Vision is home to our mission board and Grace Baptist was the church Rebelle grew up and accepted Christ.

Vision is the home of our dear friend Austin Gardner. Not only did we have the opportunity to present our ministry to the church but we also had Q & A sessions with Bro. Gardner. As a young missionary, it is invaluable to be able to learn from such veteran missionaries. Many of our missionary friends were there, making us feel right at home. We were also excited to see the Vance family, who are fellow missionaries out of our home church. Aaron Vance has been a close friend over the past few years, ever sense we met back in Peru. He and his wife have surrendered to be church planting missionaries to Colombia, South America. If your church has not yet had them come by to present their ministry, I ask that you would consider them. You can reach Aaron on his cell at 770-519-1689.

What a privilege it was to be at Grace Baptist Church for their missions conference! I was overwhelmed by gratitude, as I thought about all that Lord has done through this church. Not only have they sent several missionaries out from their church, but they also faithfully taught my wife about the Lord as she grew up. If it wasn't for this churches obedience to the Lord, I have no idea where my ministry would be today. Because where would I be without Rebelle? While we were at Grace, I had the opportunity to speak several times to different age groups. Praise the Lord that one young man accepted Christ after sharing with him the gospel! Thank you to everyone at Grace Baptist Church that gave us a gift or word of encouragement! Pastor Roger Green informed us Sunday night of the conference that they would be taking us on! After he announced they would be supporting us, we were greatly humbled at the sight of the church standing and bringing us gifts. No words can describe how Rebelle and I felt at that moment. Our God is so good to His children! We praise His name!

Thank you to our new supporters!
